

Free resources for Business Advisors, Entrepreneurship Trainers and Educators!

Helping entrepreneurs & SMEs identify and interpret early warning signals of business crisis

Make the most of these resources to empower the entrepreneurs you work with.

Choose your language to get started.

The Smart Up Curriculum and Open Education Resources are designed to support you in your work with SME owners and entrepreneurs.

These resources are aimed directly at entrepreneurship training providers for use as part of business courses - in classroom learning sessions, online training, small group work or one-on-one coaching. Watch this video shared by Momentum [educate + innovate].

SmartUp offers trainers, business advisers, lecturers and enterprise educators a new teaching model to introduce early stage intervention for business crisis into their course provision.

Now let's take a look at the online course designed for SME managers and entrepreneurship students themselves

The SmartUp online course is now available (and it's absolutely FREE!)

The SmartUp online course guarantees to improve knowledge and understanding of successful crisis management, enabling small businesses to survive a crisis and thrive in their crisis recovery period.

The course is optimised for digital delivery, enabling SMEs and entrepreneurs to develop and test their skills, either in a business support setting or remotely in their own time.
